Eric Markow, Internet Infrastructure Engineer, Bel Air Internet

BIOGRAPHY

Eric Markow has been an internet infrastructure engineer for nearly a decade, specializing in high density wireless installations and fiber deployments. Eric has installed access networks, temporary and permanent, in hotel guest rooms, high density meeting spaces, residential MDUs and student housing. Eric is responsible for wi-fi deployments, peering, fiber acquisition and infrastructure strategy for Bel Air Internet, a Los Angeles based ISP servicing 15,000 residential, business and hotel customers. When he's not analyzing the interwebs, Eric enjoys playing drums and traveling.
